We are at war. In our homes, schools, churches, communities, our country, and our world—right has become wrong, and wrong is now right. Unchecked by enough good people willing to engage and stand against it, the darkness is spreading everywhere.

Like it or not, we are locked in life or death, mortal combat. Not against flesh and blood, but against indoctrination with evil through the use of information, ideas, and ideologies under the influence of spiritual wickedness in high places.

The opposition isn't playing around. They're in it for nothing less than the minds and hearts of every man, woman, and child on the planet—including yours and those of the people you love.

Here, at the eleventh-hour, God is raising up an army—the most unlikely army the world has ever seen—an army that will meet this enemy on the field of battle and defeat it.

The fight will not be won in corporate boardrooms, halls of government, or lecture halls of the great universities. For He has not called the wise men of the world to do this. He has not called the mighty. He has chosen the humble, to rumble. He has chosen you. He has chosen me. In the cause of Christ, we will find our purpose.

The battle is upon us. The only question is, will we run, or will we fight?

With apologies to Mission Impossible, your mission, should you choose to accept it, is to go out and meet the enemy on the field of battle. Together we will lift up the cross, and tear down the kingdom of Satan, one heart at a time. It's time to get ready for the fight of your life. Your spiritual fight training—starts NOW!

The Eleventh-Hour Army is an outreach of Big Dog Chief Ministries. We are an independent Christian ministry structured as a Private Membership Association.

We are not for profit and have no affiliation with, nor do we operate under, the authority of any government, corporation, social or political organization, church, or religious denomination or group.

Membership in the Eleventh-Hour Army is free, voluntary, and open to anyone regardless of their faith tradition. We recognize no creed but the Bible and the Bible only and, as such, do not honor or adhere to any of the doctrines or traditions of men.

Members receive unlimited access to all of our training and outreach programs at no cost or obligation. Your obligation is always and only to God, not us. We advocate for members to become diligent, skillful students of the Word of God for themselves. You, and you alone, are responsible to God for your growth in grace and the knowledge of our Lord, Jesus Christ. As such, there is no requirement for anyone to agree with or accept the teachings or ideas presented in any of our programs in order to obtain, or maintain membership in the Army of the Eleventh-Hour. We are, above all else, a fellowship of students in the school of Christ.

Introducing Extreme Spiritual Fight Training

The hour is late. An unsuspecting humanity slumbers, unprepared for the magnitude of the evil that is about to be unleashed on the world. Meanwhile, darkness has covered the earth concealing the movements of the enemy. That is, until the silence of night is shattered by the sound of war. Fear has overtaken every heart. Sudden destruction is upon them.

But not everyone has been sleeping. Some have watched this darkness rise and recognize it for what it is. They will not compromise with evil. They will not be fooled. These have heard the call to arms, and stand ready to join the fight.

About

Who is this guy?

Hey! This is Apostle GK, disciple of Jesus Christ, leader of the Eleventh Hour Army, speaker and host of the Bold as a Lion Podcast, and founder, along with my wife Brenda, of Big Dog Chief Ministries.

After being saved from self-destruction and raised from the ranks of the spiritually dead, The Lord instructed me to deliver a message for Him.

Apostle GK

Btw, my mother didn't name me Apostle GK. It is the name I was inspired to assume by Jesus Christ for this ministry. The word apostle is not some grandiose title or status symbol. It simply means messenger.

I was reluctant to deliver this message at first. And why not? I had been running from the purpose God had for me for almost 60 years. Running away had made me a master excuse-maker.

“What if no one will listen?” I thought.

“That is not for you to worry about,” came the answer. “Just deliver the message. My sheep know my voice.”

“But, but, who do I deliver this message to?” I stammered. Again, the answer was clear. “You are to deliver the message I give you to the unclean, the unwashed, and those who have fallen by the way.”

The Unclean

“The unclean?” I asked.

“Yes. Many of my people have sinned so badly they have been shunned, by society, the church, and even their families. Like you, they have let a lot of people down. They have abused, betrayed, or otherwise hurt the ones who loved and needed them most.

The wounds they carry are so raw, so deep, the fear and shame so severe, they struggle to even exist anymore. The enemy speaks to them constantly, they can't shut it off. Through the power of guilt, he tells them they are broken beyond repair—that there can be no grace, no hope, at least not for them—they are getting exactly what they deserve.

They are in constant pain. As a result, they turn to alcohol, drugs, illicit sex, and other destructive behaviors just to make it stop for a while. They think no one is listening. They think no one hears them when they cry. But I AM listening. And they need to know it. That's why I have called you to go and tell them what I did for you. They must know, not only that I AM listening, but that I AM the Deliverer, that I have chosen them, as I have chosen you, to deliver others through the word of their testimony.”

My friend, if you felt something stir in your heart when you read these words, it is because this message is for YOU.

wrath,
because he

he has but a

Revelation 12:12*

The Unwashed

“Who are the unwashed?” I asked next.

“I have many who are not of this fold. They have not been baptized, don't go to church, and have never wanted anything to do with religion. They may even regard themselves as atheist, agnostic, or non-Christian.

None of that matters to me. What matters is that, even though they don't know it yet, they are my people. Their hearts haven't been hardened against the truth. They live out the principles of the kingdom in their lives, and they do it, every day. They are honest and trustworthy. They are people of integrity. They treat other people the way they want to be treated.

Lately, as the curtain has been pulled back, they are awakening to the reality that the world they thought they knew, is not as it would seem. Because they see the lies, they are now seeking the truth.

I want them to know that, just as the world, as it has been presented to them their whole lives, turned out to be an illusion, so, the image of me that has been presented to them their whole lives, is NOT who I AM either.

In a world where it is so hard to tell who is lying and who is telling the truth, they need to know that I will NEVER lie to them, that my word is TRUTH.

Once they have come to see that for themselves, once they KNOW, in their bones, they can trust my word, anxiety and worry will disappear. Even when fear and uncertainty grip the hearts of those around them, they will be at peace. It is in this way that the TRUTH will set them free.

They must understand, that if I set them free, they are free indeed, for I AM the TRUTH.”

Search your heart. How is it that you found this message today? Is it because you are searching for truth, and are determined to find it—no matter where that search may lead? Is it because, in a world that is falling apart, you can see the systems of man, you once trusted in, cannot give you what you truly desire—true peace, and real security. And, are you open to the possibility that the reason you've rejected God, or have never approached Him, is that, like everything else in this world, He has not been represented to you as He really is?

If you are open minded enough to find out,

Those Who Have Fallen by the Way

“Let us not forget those who have fallen by the way,” He continued.

“Many are ready to come home. These were once people of faith who, for one reason or another, had abandoned religion, spirituality, or God. Some grew up going to church but, somewhere along the way, decided it wasn't working for them. Some were active church members, but they got distracted by a spouse, career, or friends, and wandered away. Others experienced such a hurt, disappointment, or loss, that they became discouraged or disenchanted, and gave in to doubt.

Whatever the reason, they went away. They thought they had left me behind. But I never left them behind. And I never lost faith in THEM.

I knew as they watched evil begin to rise, and spread across the world, they would recognize it, and know the time was near. They just need to know I AM near.

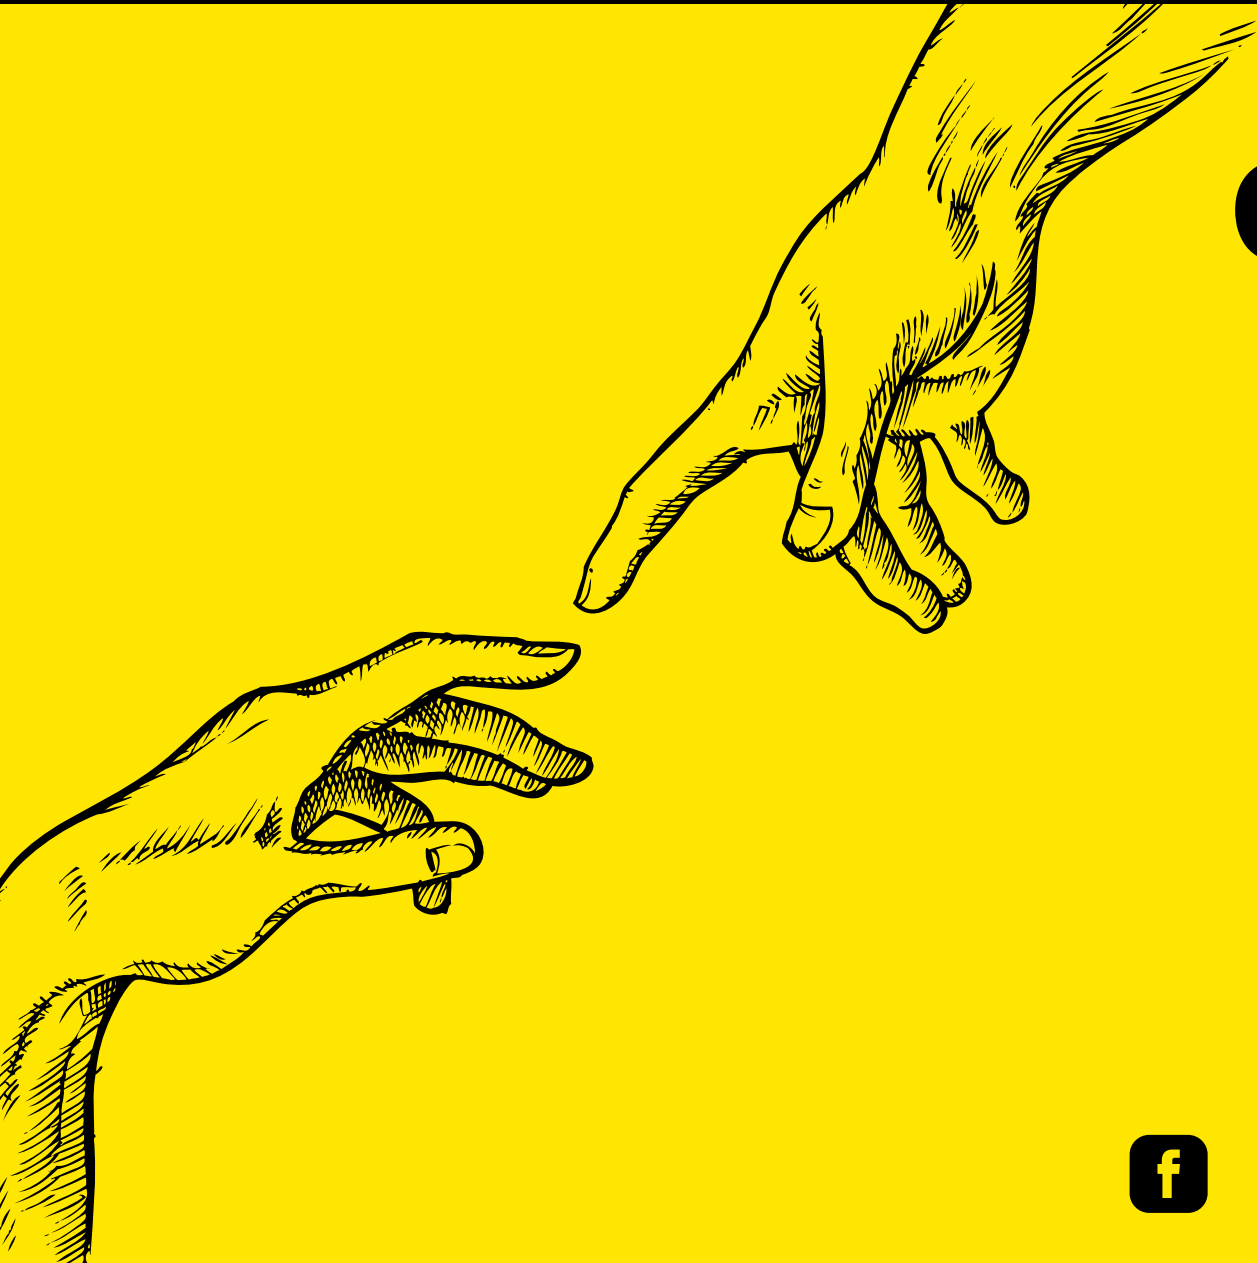

They will know my voice when they hear it—and they will follow.”

If you recognize the things that have been happening the last three years as nothing less than the rise of an evil the likes of which we've never seen before—if you sense the lateness of the hour—and, if you can hear the spirit of God speaking to you somewhere deep inside, saying, “it's time to come on home,” click here to learn what the Lord gave me, to give to you.
